SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Monday, March 17*th*, 1746. [Numb. 625.]

HAGUE, December 22.

MAMMON, the Pruſſian Miniſter, receiv'd an Expreſs this Morning, the Diſpatches of which he immediately communicated to the States General. In Subſtance as follows. 'That the King his Maſter, having been inform'd, that the Saxon Troops 'were aſſembled between Dreſden and Pirna, and that they had 'been joined by thoſe of the Auſtrians under the Orders of General Grune, as well as by all the Van Guard of Prince Charles 'of Lorrain's Army, commanded by Prince Lobkowitz; his Majeſty to prevent them, had ordered the Prince Regent of Anhalt Deſſau, his Firſt Marſhal, to attack the combined Forces 'of Auſtria and Saxony, notwithſtanding the Advantage of their 'Situation, and tho' they were almoſt twice double their Number; which Orders were put in Execution on the 15th of this 'Month, near Dreſden. The Combat began about two o'Clock 'in the afternoon, and laſted 'till Night. The King's Army 'gained a moſt compleat Victory. The Allies were entirely defeated, leaving their Dead and Wounded. Four Thouſand of 'them are made Priſoners, all their Artillery is taken, and the 'Reſt purſued to Pirna.' We expect in a few Days more a circumſtantial Account of this Grand Action; all that we can ſay at preſent is, that the Communication with Dreſden is cut off from the Allies; and the Pruſſians can make themſelves Maſters of that Capital when they pleaſe.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

WHITEHALL, December 9.

Letters from Leiceſter of the 7th mention, that the Rebels marched that Day from Aſhbourn towards Lack, and that their Route was for Wales.

Edinburgh, Dec 3. Lieutenant General Guiſt is appointed General and Commander in Chief of all his Majeſty's Forces, Forts, and Garriſons in Scotland.

General Handaſyde is to command in Berwick, and the North of England.

The Admiral, with four other Ships of War, is in purſuit of two French Men of War, and had taken on board the Priſoners, conſiſting of no leſs than 250 Men, taken on board the French Ship now in Leith Road. That Veſſel had Furniture for Horſes, Arms, &c on board.

The Highland Army in Perthſhire ſtill increaſes, and the Talk of their marching Southward ſtill continues.

Meriden, Dec. 9 ſix in the Morning. Yeſterday Morning his Royal Highneſs put himſelf at the Head of all the Horſe and Dragoons, and a Thouſand Volunteers, to endeavour to ſtop the Rebels, and give the Foot Time to come up; but we hear they are retiring Northward with great Precipitation.

Sir John Ligonier is this Moment marching from hence with the Brigade of Guards, and Semple's Regiment, to Litchfield.

Litchfield, Dec 9. Our freſheſt Accounts concerning the Progreſs of the Rebels, are of laſt Night. By them we learn, that an advanc'd Party had reach'd Macclesfield at 11 at Night, and that the main Body of them marched out of Leek Yeſterday Morning. Some ſmall Parties of them had rais'd Alarms at Newcaſtle; and we hear that they do more Miſchief now in the Country than when they came.

His Royal Highneſs is here with all the Cavalry, and a Body of Foot mounted, and preparing to continue his March in Purſuit of the Rebels.

Derby, Dec 8. The Rebels behaved tolerably well in their March ſouthwards, but have plundered the Country in their Retreat. Many of the beſt Houſes here have ſuffered. Two of them were taken with their Arms, between Aſhbourn and Derby, by a Farmer and two Boys, and were ſent to the Camp at Meriden Common. In this Town they demanded Billets for 10,000 Men, but thoſe who computed their Numbers as exactly as poſſible aſſure us, that they did not exceed 6300 Horſe and Foot. The Horſe were extremely jaded, and in a bad Condition. In the Number above were many old Men, and Boys of 15 and 16 Years of Age, all without Shoes and Stockings.

Coventry, Dec 9. The Rebels were at Aſhbourn on Saturday Morning, and went to Leek that Night. They have taken all the Horſes they could lay their Hands upon, and have plundered and done great Damage. They had fifteen Pieces of Cannon and one Mortar.

Mansfield, Dec 9. By an Expreſs juſt arrived from Leek there is an Account, that 1600 of the Rebels marched laſt Night from thence for Macclesfield, and that at 6 this Morning the main Body began to march the ſame Way, and their Artillery at 8.

Stafford, Dec 9. The Van Guard of the Rebels was in Manchester Yeſterday, and their main Body at Macclesfield.

Warrington, Dec 10. By a Meſſenger ſent out of this Town to obſerve the Motions of the Rebels we hear, that their Foot and Baggage paſſed by Pendleton Pole, which is one Mile from Manchester, this Morning, and took the Road which leads to Leigh Wigan, and Preſton. The ſame Meſſenger informs us, that he was told the Horſe deſign'd in Manchester all Night; but we have ſince heard, that their whole Body have left Manchester, and taken the above Road.

Litchfield, Dec 11. We have Advice here, that the Rebels left Manchester Yeſterday, marching Northwards; and that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland had made two forc'd Marches after them, and continued in Purſuit of them.

Dover, December 12. By a Letter arrived here To day, we have Advice, that an Embarkation of Troops is carrying on with great Expedition at Dunkirk, the Veſſels for that Purpoſe being moſt of them already there.

London, Dec 5. We hear that there is to be a Camp in a few Days on Finchley-Common, under the Command of the Earl of Stair.

Laſt Monday the Britannia, a firſt Rate Man of War, was launch'd at Chatham.

The Friendſhip, Ball, from Falmouth, for South-Carolina, taken by a Spaniſh Privateer, is re-taken by the Ambuſcade Privateer.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant a Commiſſion to eight of his Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, to examine into the preſent State of the Horned Cattle in the ſaid County, to prevent ſpreading of the Contagion, and to allow forty ſhillings to the Owner of every Beaſt that is infected with it and are directly knocked on the Head, as well as for thoſe that die of it, provided they are immediately buried in a Hole 10 Feet deep.

Dec 10. This Morning arrived a Mail from Holland, in which came over Two Gentlemen Expreſs from Vice Admiral Rowley, with Advice, that he had made himſelf Maſter of the whole Iſland of Corſica; ſo that the Republick of Genoa is like to pay very dear for their cloſe Alliance with France and Spain.

Yeſterday a Train of 32 Pieces of Cannon, with Powder Carriages, Waggons, &c were drawn out of the Tower, for the Uſe of another Army, to be commanded by his Majeſty in Perſon.

The ſame Day 24 Cheſts of Arms were ſent from the Tower in Waggons for the Uſe of the above mentioned Army.

Laſt Saturday a great Number of Sailors attended at the Admiralty, in Consequence of the Intimation they had that Day received, that their Country good in need of their immediate Service, and entered themselves with remarkable Chearfulness and Alacrity. We hear they are ordered forthwith on board several Privateers and small Vessels now lying in the River, taken into the Service of the Government, which are to sail directly, to prevent the landing of the French Troops, said to be actually embarked at Dunkirk and Ostend— Such an universal Readiness in all Ranks of People to assist his Majesty at this critical Conjuncture, must certainly tend to the speedy and utter Confusion and Disappointment both of our Foreign and Domestick Enemies.

Dec 12. By the last Advices from Lancashire, we hear that the rest of the Rebels quitted Manchester on Tuesday last with great Precipitation, on the near Approach of his Royal Highness the Duke, who, with his Horse, and the Foot that were mounted, had by two forced Marches got near up to them; so that 'tis expected the next Accounts will bring Advice that his Royal Highness has made himself Master of their Baggage.

Last Sunday Night Marshal Wade, with his whole Army, march'd from Doncaster and Ferrybridge towards Lancashire, in order to cut off the Retreat of the Rebels, in case they design to march for Scotland.

By Advices from Frodsham in Cheshire, we hear, that the Earls of Cholmondsley and Warrington, with the Militia of Cheshire and Staffordshire, and the Lord Herbert's new raised Regiment, have march'd to the said Town, to stop the Passage of the Rebels into North-Wales, in case they should design to turn that Way.

The Motions of the Rebels have been so artfully regulated, in order to avoid and harrass the King's Troops, and have so much the Appearance of being founded on good Intelligence, that it is hoped, some Enquiry will be made after the Authors of their Information.

It is said, that the Foot under Marshal Wade are ordered for Scotland, and the Horse and Dragoons are to join the Army under the Duke of Cumberland

Yesterday five of the principal Persons taken in the Soleil Privateer, were brought under a strong Guard to the Tower from Kent.

Advertisement. Taken out of the SALISBURY JOURNAL of the 24th of December.

ESCAP'D from his Keepers at ROME, about Four Months ago, a tall young Man, about Twenty five Years of Age, very near sighted, and disorder'd in his Senses, of Scotch Extraction, whose Father was Son (by Adoption) to Mr. James Stuart, who kept the Crown near St. James's in London, suppos'd to be gone towards Scotland; he is Sullen, eats Little, sleeps Less, and Starts Often; talks of Crowns, Kingdoms, Halters, Axes, Hereditary Right, and Holy Mother Church; is a little troubled with the Mange, and froths at the Mouth; has a Mole on the Left Side of his Neck; had on French Regimentals pretty much worn, especially about the Collar, occasion'd by his frequent Scratching that Part; has got the Halter in which Sir Guy Faux suffered Martyrdom, which he constantly carries about him as a Preservative against Gibbets. Whoever meets the above unhappy young Person, and will bring him to Mr. Louis Bien Aimé, at the Flower de Luce, Rue des Coquins, at Versailles, to his disconsolate Parents at Rome, or to Mr. John Ketch, Haberdasher of rotten Carcasses, at the Feion Pendant, next Door to the Coffin-Maker's in the Old Bailey, London, shall be rewarded with a Gratitude proportioned to the Importance of the Service.
